TRAINEE BUSINESS ASSET & MACHINERY VALUER WANTED

John Pye Auctions, which celebrates its 50th anniversary this year, is the UK's largest commercial auction house and operates across 23 UK sites across England, Scotland and Wales, is recruiting for experienced and trainee valuers.

Our award winning Business Assets team – four times consecutive TRI Award Asset Valuer/Auctioneer of the Year (2015, 2016, 2017 & 2018) - has doubled in the past year and seen revenues increase three fold. The department manages over 30,000 instructions per annum on behalf of Banks, Turnaround, Recovery & Insolvency Practitioners, Government Authorities, Retail PLCs and Partnerships, Property Owners & Agents & Private Investment Clients.

We are now looking to recruit a trainee valuer in London to join our fast growing Business Asset & Machinery Valuation Department ideally with previous experience, although not essential as full training and support will be given to attain qualifications.

Competitive Salary and Bonus available for the right candidates.

Please lodge expression of interest with a CV to our London Business Development Manager, Mike Stanton:
